Service and the Deliz Family

Historical Context

The Deliz family has a proud tradition of service in the US military. The sources in this packet highlight the lives of members of this family, 6 of which are buried and memorialized at Puerto National Cemetery (PRNC) in Bayamón, PR. The youngest Veteran participating in this project, Carlos Antonio Deliz, lives in Puerto Rico and receives VA services. The Deliz family's service has spanned both war and peace, from World War II to Vietnam War and beyond.

For more information on the Deliz Family, listen to :

Estimada doña Alicia:

En estos momentos difíciles, se por experiencia propia, que unas [illegible] bras sin-ceras de consuelo hacen la carga más liviana...

Irrespectivamente de nuestra relación formal de trabajo, pude desa[illegible]llar una relación con Carlos mucho más amplia y estrecha que la rutinaria. [illegible]mpart[illegible]os bromas, chistes, "el cigarrillito de turno", el intercambio de imp[illegible]siones y conceptos, etc.

Tuve la oportunidad de conocerla durante nuestra fiesta de Navidad, y por eso me dirijo a usted en esta ocasión. Yo me considero orgulloso de haber cono-cido y compartido con Carlos, aunque fuera por tan corto tiempo. Su sentido de responsabilidad y eficiencia eran dignos de encomio y respeto. Pero su actitud ante la vida era todavía más significativa, pues reflejaba una alegría Realista ante este peregrinaje...

La firma de Lebrón, Sanfiorenzo & Fuentes (LSF) ha perdido uno de sus puntales, pues su experiencia, conocimientos y disposición para el trabajo fueron de incalculable valor para nuestra sección de especificaciones. Nunca habíamos perdido a uno de nuestros empleados, y mucho menos del calibre de Carlos.

Es por todo esto que tanto LSF, como mi persona, compartimos la pérdida de Carlos... aunque no sea comparable con la suya... pues también fue nuestra.

Hubiera deseado poderle expresar mis sentimientos personalmente, pero desafortu-nadamente, salgo para los EE.UU. hoy lunes a las 4:00 P.M. y no regreso hasta el viernes 27 de enero de 1978. Por deber tenía que expresarle mis sentimientos, y dadas las circunstancias presentes, he tenido que recurrir a este medio, que entiendo no es el más adecuado. Mis excusas.

Carlos Eugenio passed away in 1978. This letter, in Spanish, expressed his colleagues' condolences to his wife Alicia. They recalled Carlos Eugenio's positive impact on their lives.

Condolence Letter English Translation

ENGINEERING · ARCHITECTURAL · URBAN PLANNING

January 23, 1978
Mrs. Alicia F. de Deliz
Calle Hija del Caribe 129
Hato Rey, Puerto Rico 00918

Dear Mrs. Alicia in these difficult moments, I know from personal experience that a few sincere words of comfort can make the burden a little lighter…

Regardless of our formal working relationship, I was able to develop a much broader and closer bond with Carlos than routine would allow. We shared jokes, laughter, "the cigarette of the moment," the exchange of impressions and ideas, etc.

I had the opportunity to meet you during our Christmas party, and that is why I am writing to you on this occasion. I consider myself proud to have known and shared time with Carlos, even if only for a short while. His sense of responsibility and efficiency were worthy of praise and respect. But his attitude toward life was even more meaningful, for it reflected a Realistic joy in the face of this pilgrimage…

The firm of Lebrón, Sanfiorenzo & Fuentes (LSF) has lost one of its pillars, as his experience, knowledge, and disposition to the work were of incalculable value to our specifications department. We had never lost one of our employees, and much less one of Carlos' caliber.

It is for all of this that both LSF, and personally, share in the loss of Carlos... even if it cannot compare to yours... for it was ours as well.

I would have wished to express my feelings to you in person, but unfortunately, I leave for the United States today, Monday, at 4:00 P.M., and will not return until Friday, January 27, 1978. Because I felt the need to express my sentiments to you, and given the present circumstances, I have had to resort to this means, which I understand is not the most appropriate. My apologies.

An English translation of the condolence letter from 1978 (from the previous page) from Carlos' engineering colleagues to Alicia, Eugenio's wife.

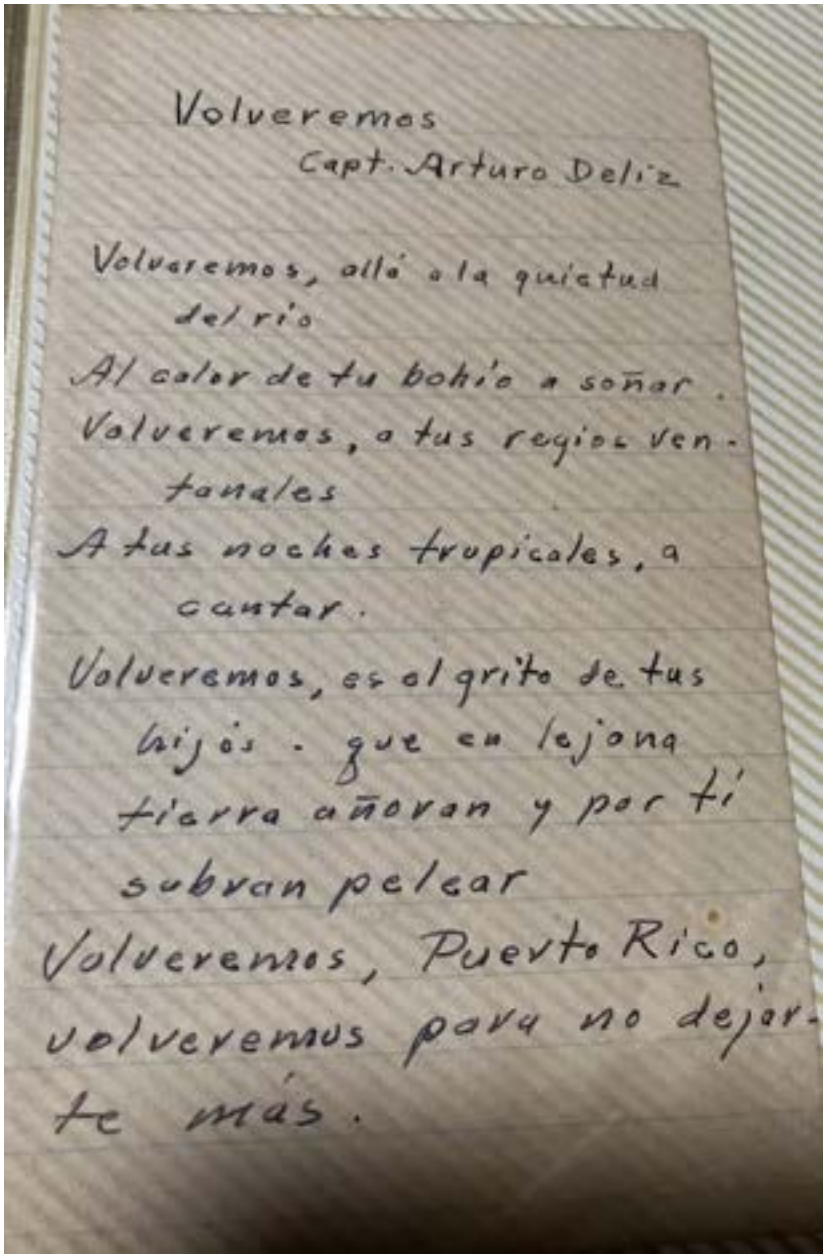
Poem



Volveremos
Capt. Arturo Deliz

Volveremos, allá a la quietud
del río
Al color de tu bohío a soñar.
Volveremos, a tus regios ventanales
A tus noches tropicales, a cantar.
Volveremos, es el grito de tus
hijos. que en lejana tierra añoran y por ti subran pelear
Volveremos, Puerto Rico, volveremos para no dejar-te más.

Arturo Deliz Oms wrote this poem, preserved among his personal papers.

Poem Translation

Volveremos

"We Will Return"

- Cap. Arturo Deliz

We will return, there to the stillness of the river

To the warmth of your bohío to dream.

We will return
to your majestic views to your tropical nights
to sing.

We will return,
is the cry of your children,
who long to return from a foreign land
and for you they will know to fight

We will return, Puerto Rico,
we will return to never leave you again.
