Learning Objectives

By the end of the project, students will be able to explain, through a one-pager, the effect immigrants had during multiple wars by analyzing primary and secondary sources on specific Veterans.

Procedure

Note: Use the PowerPoint as you go through the lesson to help guide you and your students.

Day 1: Introduction to the terms Veteran and Immigrants

- Reminder - a FREE account needs to be made on Readworks.org in order to access the articles.
- The students will gain a basic understanding of the terms "Veteran" and "Immigrants" from the articles. The teacher will want to print copies of the articles if they want students to annotate them while they read.
 - Purpose for reading "Meet a Soldier": Introduction to the term "Veteran" and the importance of Veterans in the United States.
 - Purpose for reading "Immigration in the U.S. Today": Introduction to the term "Immigration" and why immigrants move from their native countries.
 - While students are reading the articles, they will be circling and highlighting terms/phrases to help guide them to the understanding of the terms "Veterans" and "Immigrants." There are guiding questions on the provided PowerPoint. (See above materials section.)
 - If desired, students can answer the guiding questions on the article graphic organizers (see below.)
 - If needed, the website provides the option to read aloud for student accommodations.

Day 2: St. Augustine National Cemetery Immigrant Mini Tour

- Purpose of tour: further knowledge of what a Veteran and Immigrant are, gain knowledge of what makes a cemetery a National Cemetery, and exposure to different primary resources that will be used later in the project (draft cards, censuses, birth certificates, etc.).
 - Students will take an independent digital mini tour of St. Augustine National Cemetery that focuses on Veterans who were immigrants or second-generation immigrants.

- Optional: Have students complete the
 - Students will need an individual computer. If individual computers are not accessible, the tour may be projected on a SMART Board (or similar platform.)
- When the tours are complete, teachers and students will have an open discussion to clear up misconceptions and ensure students understand what a Veteran and Immigrant are, the difference between a cemetery and a National Cemetery, and a basic understanding of different types of primary resources.

Day 3: Introduction to sources on the Veterans/Choose 1 Veteran

- On day 3, examples of the types of sources the students will have access to are shown and explained. These sources can be intimidating. Please remind students to take their time while they are reviewing each example and ask questions when needed.
- The types of documents are broken down on the PowerPoint to help ensure the research is accurate.
- Once the review is over, students will have time to skim over each of the Veteran Source Packets. When they are finished, they will pick ONE Veteran to dive into and create their project on.
 - Depending on your students, you may decide to pair them to do the research and source analysis.

Day 4 - 6: Analyzing and note-taking information on your Veteran

- Each provided packet of sources on the Veterans has a multitude of different sources and information. The goal for the students is to create a timeline for their Veteran using the information found. This will help them with their final project.
 - If desired, the graphic organizer (attached below) can be distributed to students to help them keep track of the information they learn and what they will need to include in their final project of the one-pager.

Day 7 - 9: Using the information gathered, create your one-pager.

- Provide your students with the guidelines for the one-pager assignments listed below. (These are also listed out in the PowerPoint if you want to use that as a reference.)
 - Your Veteran's name: This is the title of your one-pager. Make sure your Veteran's name is larger than other texts and noticeable so we can keep our Veteran's name alive.
 - Your Veteran's Branch: Find out what branch your Veteran served in. Research 2 facts about that branch and add it to your one-pager.
 - Locations: Use your sources to identify 3 locations your Veteran lived, served, was buried, etc. Ensure you identify and write the significance of the locations on your one-pager.

- Traits about your Veteran: Throughout your research, you will learn a lot of information on your Veteran. Pick 4 important traits and explain on your one-pager. Some examples – ethnicity, relationship status, employment pre or post service, job within their branch, deployments, etc.
- Dates: As you analyze, find 5 important dates for your Veteran. For example, birth date, date of enlistment, marriage date, child's birthday, etc. Make sure your dates are in chronological order. Hint: Create a timeline or list on your one-pager.
- Before students begin, share the provided examples with them below. Determine if students will create a digital or paper copy (or if they can choose.)

Day 10: Gallery Walk Presentations

- The Gallery Walk Presentations may be completed in a few different ways. I have listed a few ways below. The first example correlates with the PowerPoint presentation.
 - Create a day on your school calendar where you invite other classes to come to view your classes' work. The students will stand near their projects and explain their Veteran's history through their One-Pager.
 - If time is limited, you can still have a Gallery Walk within your classroom. To do so, create the space for a combination of a jigsaw and gallery walk. Have each group choose one representative to stay with the one-pagers for their Veteran to present the information. The other students will rotate around the room to examine the other one-pagers and listen to other students speak.
 - Students will fill out the Veteran One-Pager Gallery Walk Notes graphic organizer as they listen to their peers. (See below.)
 - Remind students to speak clearly and respectfully and ensure they are highlighting the Veteran and their role they played as an immigrant or second-generation immigrant who played a role in one of the wars from our past.
