 WAR NURSES OF THE HARVARD UNIT.

Thirty-two surgeons and specialists of the party and then checked by the steamship agent in order to obviate all trouble next Friday, when the unit sails from New York on the Holland-American liner Noordam. Doctors and nurses were photographed in groups for purposes of identification and then the outfits were issued. The nurses' uniforms are so made as to be capable of "mangle ironing" and are of the kind used in hospitals here. They are very different from the British Red Cross uniforms. Aprons, caps, brassards and "duffel bags" go with these uniforms. All baggage is to be checked through to Falmouth, Eng. The party will leave Boston next Thursday evening for New York by way of the Fall River Line, calling the following morning on the Noordam. Dr. E. H. Nichols of 24 Marlboro at is the official head of the unit and Herbert E. White is acting as business manager of the expedition. Nearly all of the doctors were received by Press and Mrs Lowell yesterday afternoon at the president's house on Quincy st, Cambridge.

Article Transcription:

“Miss Ida Pearl Peacock, a graduate of Massachusetts General hospital and a student of Public Health Nursing at Simmons College, has been employed by the State Department of Health to act as supervisor of maternity work and infant welfare work in a new territory now being developed by the department in Knox county. She will concentrate her efforts for the next few months in the vicinity of Thomaston, South Thomaston, and St George.

Miss Christine B. Holmes, a graduate of Rhode Island hospital and of Simmons, has also been employed and will be in charge of the same work in Kennebec county, especially in Hallowell, Randolph and Farmingdale. Miss Holmes went across at the outbreak of the World war in 1914 with the first Harvard Unit and served for some time in France. Both nurses are especially well qualified for the important work which they are about to undertake, and the department feels that they are fortunate in obtaining these young ladies’ services.”
