John Manuel Carves

1921 – 1943

Second Lieutenant: United States Army Air Forces*

World War II

Please note that news articles published online often exist behind paywalls and require a subscription to access digitally. We have provided links, but have not reproduced them here. Similarly, many families have created remembrance pages. Again, we have provided links, when applicable, but have not reproduced any images without express written permission from the family.

*In 1941, the United States Army Air Corps became the United States Army Air Forces. Then, in 1947, the US government established the United States Air Force as a separate service.

BAGGAGE

WHY YOU SHOULD USE THE JACKSONVILLE BAGGAGE & CAB CO.
 Their trucks do nothing but haul baggage. To facilitate service we have men in the baggage room. We call for your checks free of charge and deliver your trunk. Our transfer check is the only check recognized by the Jacksonville Terminal Co. Office, Union Station

Transcription:

“Bob Robertson and John Carves, both of whom were reserve ends on last year’s eleven, will be the team managers this year. Robertson suffered a fractured arm in a practice game last fall and will be unable to play and Carves will be out because of a back injury which occurred late in the season.”

(The article in its entirety concerns the positions of the team members of the Palm Beach High Wildcats in the 1938 season.)

John Carves' Final High School Football Game

“Wildcats and Pahokee Clash for County Grid Title Tonight, Record Attendance Expected For Game,” Palm Beach Post, December 7, 1939.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/130164295/?terms=john%20carves&match=1>

Summary:

The article discusses the upcoming game between the Palm Beach High Wildcats and the Pahokee Blue Devils. John Carves is listed as one of the seniors playing his last game for Palm Beach High.

(An image of John Carves amongst his teammates is also present.)

John Carves' Invitation to All-Star Football Team

“County All-Star Squad to Hold First Practice Here Today, 28 Seniors Invited to Play With Team,” Palm Beach Post, December 26, 1939.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/130178018/?terms=john%20carves&match=1>

Summary:

The article concerns an all-star high school football team made up of members from Palm Beach, Lake Worth, and Pahokee High that will play Mt. Carmel High. John Carves is listed as one of the players from Palm Beach invited to participate.

John Carves on the All-Star Football Team

Transcription:

“Palm Beach County’s First All-Star Team—This collection of gridiron talent is perhaps the finest ever to appear in Palm Beach High uniforms, for it represents the pick of the three teams at Palm Beach, Pahokee, and Lake Worth high schools. The squad members, who will meet Mt. Carmel of Chicago tonight in an intersectional game, are...”

(The article then lists a series of names, of which “John Carves, Palm Beach” is one. The caption accompanies a photo of the entire team; Carves is in the back row.)

John Carves Wins the 1940 Season's Last Basketball Game

“Wildcat Five Wins Season’s Last Game,” Palm Beach Post, February 29, 1940.

Transcription:

“LAKE WORTH – Palm Beach High’s cagers ended their 1940 season here Wednesday night by taking a 30 to 26 decision from the Lake Worth Trojans in a rough battle.

The Wildcats held the lead most of the way, but the Trojans threatened at all times. The last quarter was played with makeshift teams, both teams having three regulars benched for excessive fouls. Davis, Harris, and Buhl went out of the Wildcat lineup, and Biesnecker, Bob and Jack Mason were out of the Lake Worth lineup.

John Carves, center, was the spearhead of the Wildcat attack, with seven of the eight players breaking into the scoring.

The Palm Beach B team won the preliminary, 24 to 23.”

Transcription:

“Names of eight Palm Beach County men are included among 390 former University of Florida students who lost their lives in the service of their country in World War 2.

Announcement was made of the honor roll, being compiled by the Florida Alumni Association office, as final plans are being completed for the university’s war dead Memorial Service scheduled at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 27, in the university’s auditorium at Gainesville. Parents and friends of the honored men are expected to attend and George Smathers of Miami, Democratic nominee for Congress, a Marine Corps veteran and alumnus of the university, will be the principal speaker.

The announced list includes...”

(The article then lists the eight Palm Beach County men to be presented on the Roll of Honor, including “John M. Carves” listed under the “West Palm Beach” section.)

John Carves' Remains Returned to His Family

Transcription:

“ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 14 – (Special) Remains of 47 Florida World War II dead, who were originally interred in temporary military cemeteries in New Guinea and the Philippines Islands, are being returned to the United States aboard the U.S. Army transport Sgt. Jack T. Pendleton.

After the arrival of the Sgt. Jack Pendleton at the San Francisco port of embarkation, from two to five weeks will elapse before the Atlanta distribution center will be able to advise the next of kin when they may expect to receive the remains of their loved ones.

Each next of kin will be notified in advance of the arrival of the Sgt. Jack J. Pendleton in San Francisco, and again after arrival of the remains at the Atlanta distribution center of the American Graves Registration service.

Following is a list of remains being returned at the request of next of kin residing in Florida, showing rank, name, branch, and next of kin...”

(The article lists a series of names, including “2nd Lt. John M. Carves, Air Force, (Manuel G. Carves), West Palm Beach.”)

Palm Beach Air Force Base Gates Named After John Carves and Others

“PBAFB Gates Honor Heroes,” Palm Beach Post, June 26, 1955.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/133573652/?terms=john%20carves&match=1>

Transcription:

“Palm Beach Air Force Base’s three main gates were renamed recently to honor three local citizens killed in action during World War II, according to Col. H. G. Thorne, Jr., base commander.

The gates have been renamed as follows:

Gerald E. O’Quinn Entrance (formerly Belvedere Road east gate)

John M. Carves Entrance (formerly PBAFB Headquarters gate)

Hugh A. Kelly Entrance (formerly south gate on Southern Blvd)”

(The article then goes into detail on the lives of O’Quinn and Kelly, finishing with Carves’ description, which is as follows:)

“The late 2d Lt. John M. Carves was a B-25 pilot in the Army Air Corps in New Guinea. He died of wounds received during a bombing mission. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Carves, and a sister, Mrs. George Miller, who resides at 7201 S. Flagler Drive and a brother, Gus Carves, of 228 Rutland Boulevard in West Palm Beach. He attended the University of Florida.

The name plaques, made of varnished cypress, were mounted at each of the entrances.”

(The article also has a photo of all three gates, with Carves’ gate appearing to be the one in the center.)

John Carves' Family Receives Palm Beach Air Force Base Plaque

“Families Get PBAFB ‘Entrance’ Plaques,” Palm Beach Post, May 31, 1959.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/130025804/?terms=john%20m%20carves&match=1>

Transcription:

“Families of three local citizens who were killed in action during World War II received the plaques which formerly were mounted at PBAFB’s three entrances. Colonel George W. Peterson, PBAFB Commander, made the presentations. The plaques bearing the name and short biographical information of the deceased personnel, had been used to name the three PBAFB entrances as follows:

Gerald O’Quinn Entrance (Belvedere Road east gate); John M. Carves Entrance (PBAFB headquarters gate) and Hugh A. Kelley Entrance (south gate).

Second Lt. Gerald Edward O’Quinn died on Aug. 6, 1943, when his Douglas C-46 Commando aircraft crashed when an engine failed while flying in the China-Burma-India theater.

Second Lt. Hugh Kelley died when his Boeing B-17 Flying Fortress was shot down over Austria May 29, 1944.

Second Lt. John M. Carves was a B-25 pilot in the Army Air Force in New Guinea. He died of wounds received during a bombing mission.

The name plaques, made of varnished cypress, were mounted at each of the entrances in June, 1955.”

(To the right of the article is a photo of the plaques, alongside the commander of Palm Beach Air Force Base and the three families of the Veterans commemorated on the plaques. John M. Carves’ plaque is the rightmost one, and his parents stand behind it.)
