Topic—Lessons from the Book of Ruth. Scripture—Ruth 1:14-22.

The book of Ruth is tucked in between the two historical books of Judges and I Samuel, and makes a very valuable contribution to our knowledge of the times in which it was written and to our appreciation of the spirit of the people. They had a spirit of deep devotion and true affection the same as springs up normally between young people here in America.

And they conceived of the spirit of love as the one supreme characteristic of men which resembled God. In this, the story of Ruth foreshadows Christ's message, for he summed up the whole "law and the prophets"—the sum of human relations in the two commandments to love—love to God and love to man.

The following points should be especially noted:

1. How love conquered grief.
2. How love broke down national barriers.
3. How love enabled a timid woman to brave danger and isolation.
4. Discuss the need of love to help Friends to appreciate each other in the presence of differences of belief and practice.
5. Discuss the effect of the spirit of love upon our attitude toward those of other nations and races.

Joseph Bunting Wins Mile Race

“Bunting Wins Mile Race,” Tampa Bay Times, November 29, 1940.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/315900969/?terms=joseph%20arrington%20bunting&match=1>

Transcription:

“Arrington Bunting, veteran of last year’s Green Devils track team, won the annual Thanksgiving mile and the Thomas G. Reilly trophy at waterfront park yesterday morning.

A Junior college 100-yard dash winter feature was copped by Howard Warns, former Green Devils and former state champ in the century.

Bunting, who will not be eligible for spring competition, was timed in 5:24, Warns in 12.3...”

(The article then discusses the placements and awards of the other racers; one racer is Moran Bunting, Joseph Arrington’s brother, who finished in second.)

Bunting told fellow inductees, “I’m going all out in the cause of freedom.” His father served overseas with a corps of engineers in World war I.”

(The article then lists a number of other glidermen training in Orlando.)

Joseph Bunting in an Article About Good Luck Tokens

“Good Luck Tokens Vary With Pilots,” Harding Field Echelon (Baton Rouge, LA), May 22, 1944.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/850849370/?terms=joseph%20a%20bunting&match=1>

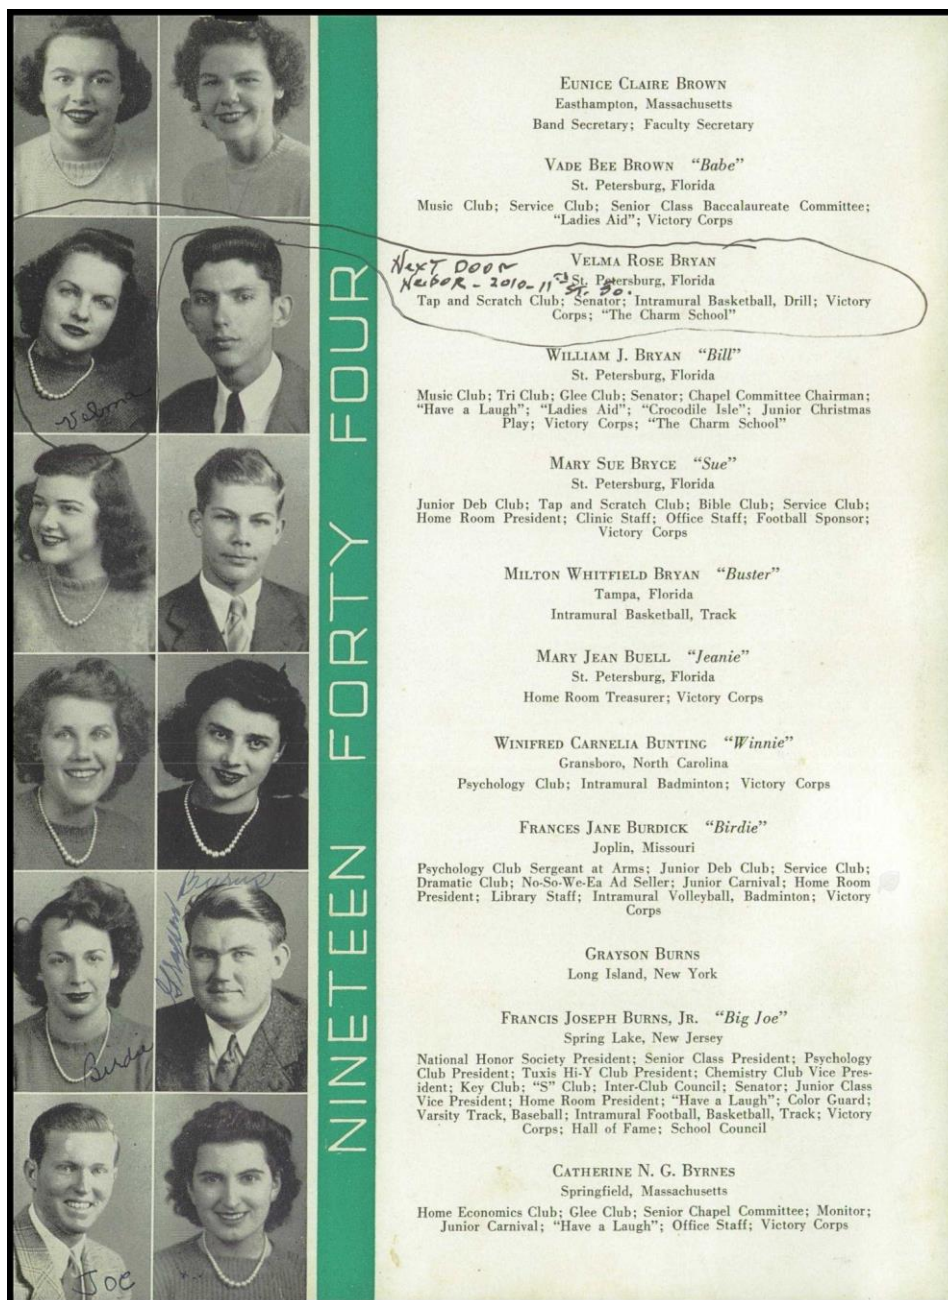

Transcription:

“The value of good luck tokens to a fighting man is a matter of opinion and pilots at Harding Field are about equally divided “fer and agin’ ” ‘em, a survey conducted here last week discloses. One thing they agree on—from the hard-boiled veteran of fifty combat missions to the trainee just out of advanced school—flying is more a matter of science and skill than of luck. “But just the same” a lot of them will tell you, “we feel safer in the air if we have this little token with us.” Then, like as not, they will exhibit gadgets ranging from a lock of their wife’s hair in a cellophane envelope to a “raggedy Anne” doll in a pocket of their flying suit.”

(The article discusses several pilots and if they believe in luck or carry good luck charms, and if they do, they discuss what they are.)

“Another silver dollar accompanies Lt. Joseph A. Bunting of St. Petersburg, Fla., although he insists that it’s simply a pocketpiece instead of a good luck charm.”

(More discussion on soldiers and good luck charms continues.)

Joseph Bunting on Missions in Vosges Mountains

Gertrude Enz, "Lt. T. F. Barton Back From 85 Combat Missions," Tampa Bay Times, January 20, 1945.

Transcription:

(This article is about fighter pilot First Lieutenant Thomas Barton visiting his family while on leave. In the article, Joseph Bunting is mentioned having been involved on a mission with Lieutenant Barton.)

"He was in the flight with the major and Lt. Joseph Bunting, also of this city, when the group aided in the thrilling rescue, Oct. 31, of 270 American infantry men trapped behind German lines in the Vosges foothills. Piloting their Thunderbirds on low-flying sweeps over the marooned soldiers, the airmen dropped rations and medical supplies."

Joseph Bunting Reported Missing in Action

“Lt. Bunting, Veteran of 86 Missions, Listed Missing,” Tampa Bay Times, April 24, 1945.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/314837416/?terms=joseph%20a%20bunting&match=1>

Transcription:

“First Lt. Joseph Arrington Bunting, Thunderbolt fighter pilot on the western front, veteran of more than 86 combat sorties, is reported missing in action in Germany since April 4.

The war department telegram was received here Friday by his wife, the former Catherine Farrington, 3409 Fifty-fourth avenue north.

The missing pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bunting, 4390 Fifty-ninth avenue north, has been overseas 10 months and continued flying after completing the required quota of 85 missions. In the latest letter to his wife, dated March 29, and one to his brother, dated April 2, he wrote that he was awaiting orders to return to the states.

Lt. Bunting flew in the fighter squadron formerly commanded by Lt. Col. John Willis Leonard, this city, who lost his life when forced to crash his plane in Germany last January. The squadron, originally with the Ninth AAF in England, transferred to bases in France after D-Day and later became a unit of the newly-formed First Tactical Air Force, which has been flying in close support of the Allied ground forces.

Lt. Bunting flew into the raid led by Col. Leonard to parachute supplies to 270 American infantrymen trapped behind German lines in the Vosges foothills last October.

Holder of the Air Medal with clusters, the lieutenant had chalked up 200 hours of combat flying. A 1941 graduate of St. Petersburg high school, he was a member of the school’s track team and held the state championship for the 400 yard dash. He won his wings and commission at Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz. in February, 1944.

Two brothers are also in the armed forces: Sgt. Moran Bunting in the Pacific, and Cadet Archie Bunting stationed in Indiana.”

Joseph Bunting Mentioned in Article on Nazi General's Capture

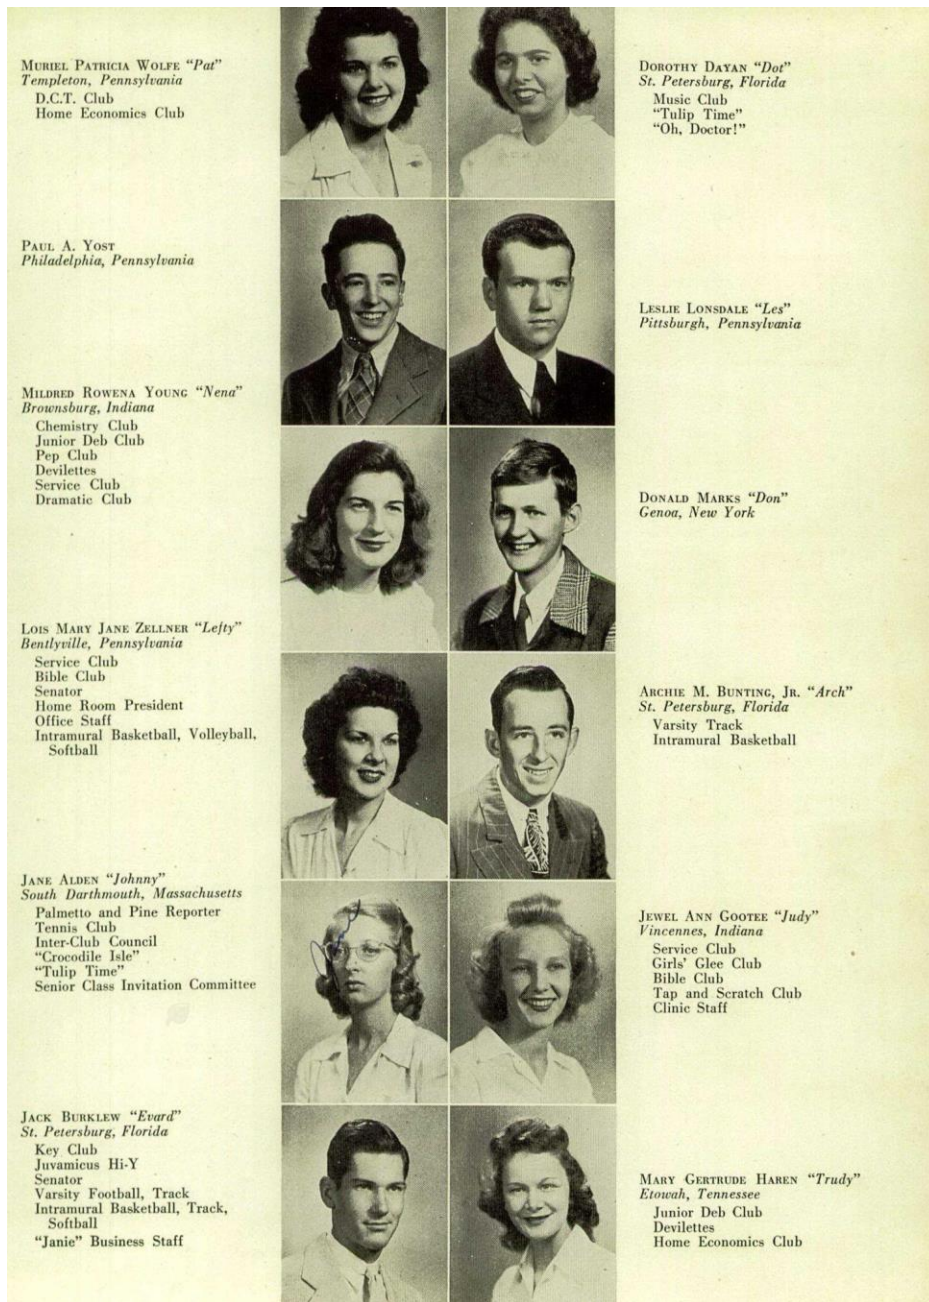

“Lt. Joe Burke A Hero Again, Former Local Credit Man Nabs Gen. Von Rundstedt, Famed Nazi,” Tampa Bay Times, May 3, 1945.

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/314842187/?terms=joseph%20a%20bunting>

Transcription:

(The majority of the article discusses Lt. Joseph E. Burke, and his capture of German Gen. Karl Rudolf Gerd von Rundstedt; however Joseph A. Bunting makes an appearance in a section of the article dedicated to the resupply missions he underwent in the Vosges.)

“An account of the trapped infantrymen appeared in The Times Nov. 6. They were supplied with food dropped by a squadron of Thunderbolt fighter planes commanded by Lt. Col. John Wallis Leonard, who lost his life in action over Germany last January, and which included another local pilot, 1st Lt. Joseph A. Bunting, reported missing in action since April 4.”

“Lt. Joe Bunting Declared Dead,” Tampa Bay Times, May 15, 1946.

Transcription:

“First Lt. Joseph Arrington Bunting, Thunderbolt pilot reported missing in action in Germany since April 4, 1945, has been declared dead, according to a war department letter received this week by his wife, Mrs. Catherine Farrington Bunting, 3409 Fifty-fourth avenue north.

Having completed 86 missions on the western front, Lt. Bunting while participating in an aerial sweep to the Halle area of Germany, flew down with the flight of P-47's to strafe a train heading toward Weissenfels. Flak was encountered and Lt. Bunting was seen to bail out about two miles southwest of Weissenfels. His parachute opened and he was seen to land but was not seen to make any movement after he hit the ground.

Lt. Bunting flew in the fighter squadron formerly commanded by Lt. Col. John Wallis Leonard, this city, who lost his life in Germany in January 1945. The squadron, originally with the Ninth AAF in England, transferred to bases in France after D-Day and later became a unit of the First Tactical Air Force which was closely co-ordinated with ground force activities.

Holder of the Air Medal with clusters and the DFC, the lieutenant had chalked up 200 hours of combat flying. He won his wings and commission at Luke field, Phoenix, Ariz. in February, 1944.

The son of Mr. and rs. Marvin Bunting, 4390 Fifty-ninth avenue north, he was a 1941 graduate of St. Petersburg high school. He was a member of the school's track team and held the state championship for the 440-yard dash.

In addition to his wife and parents, three brothers. Moran and Archie, recently discharged from military service, and Charles Bunting, and a sister, Winnifred, all of this city, survive.”

BUNTING, Joseph A.

1st Lieutenant, 450th Fighter Squadron, 371st Fighter Group Army Air Corps, World War II. Re-interred from Leige, Belgium, 30 June 1949. Florida: 10 July 1921 to 4 April 1945.

(The 450th Fighter Group, flying P-47 fighter-bomber aircraft, entered combat in Northern Europe in the spring of 1944. They were involved with the Normandy and Northern France Campaigns, performed extremely important services during the Battle of the Bulge. During the period 15 to 21 March 1945, the Group earned a Distinguished Unit Citation for its attacks against important ground targets in conjunction with Allied advances to the Rhine River in Germany. Bunting was most probably killed during, or immediately after one of the Group's raids against German targets in extreme northern Germany).

On the 4th of April 1945, Bunting was the pilot of a P-47D28 aircraft (SN 44-20271) with the 371st Fighter Squadron, 405th Fighter Group, XIX Tactical Air Force on a fighter-bomber sweep mission in the Halle area.

"I was flying Lt. Bunting's wing on a sweep in the Halle area; a train was sighted heading toward Weissenfeld and the squadron went in to strafe it. When Lt. Bunting was about 500 feet, making a strafing pass, I saw light moderate flack break around him. He pulled up and turned left and when he did so I observed white smoke coming out of his turbo. He climbed to about 2,000 feet and then started down and as he started down he jettisoned his canopy and bailed out.

The parachute opened and he landed near some trees and a small road; we circled and saw him being dragged across a field by the billowing chute. He had said nothing after being hit by flak and he seemed to make no movement after he hit the ground."

(Statement of Lieutenant Arden Williams)

Transcription:

"In ceremonies at MacDill Field this week, the Distinguished Flying Cross was awarded posthumously to Lt. Joseph A. Bunting Jr., killed in action while on duty in the ETO. Mrs. Joseph A. Bunting Jr., wife of the late Army flyer, received the award from Col. George P. Tourtellot, commanding officer at MacDill.

The citation accompanying the medal reads: "For extraordinary achievement in aerial flight on 19 March 1945. While participating in air-ground operations in conjunction with the ground forces in the vicinity of Kaiserslautern, Lt. Bunting, demonstrating outstanding leadership and technical skill, led two flights of P-47 type aircraft in repeated low-level strafing attacks on enemy motor columns and horse drawn vehicles. The brilliant airmanship and devotion to duty demonstrated by Lt. Bunting on this occasion were in keeping with the highest traditions of the service."

Lt. Bunting was the son of Mrs. Joseph A. Bunting Sr., who resides at 3409 54th avenue north."

LT. JOE BUNTING FUNERAL TOMORROW

Body of Flier, Shot Down On 86th Mission, Returned

A military funeral will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in the St. Augustine National Cemetery for a St. Petersburg youth who turned down a chance to come home in 1945 and crashed to his death in a Thunderbolt fighter in Germany several days later.

Lt. Joseph Arrington Bunting, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bunting, 4390 59th Avenue North, was killed on his 86th combat mission, April 5, 1945, when enemy flak downed his fighter near Lelpsig. He had completed the required 85 missions entitling him to return to the United States, but chose to fight the war out.

Lt. Bunting, former track star at St. Petersburg High School, flew 86 combat missions against the Luftwaffe and enemy ground forces. He was listed missing in action for months after his plane was shot down by enemy anti-aircraft fire shortly before the war in Europe ended. A military guard of honor will escort the flag-draped casket of the Ninth Air Force flier tomorrow to the cemetery. A firing squad will fire the farewell volley and a bugler will sound taps.

Lt. Bunting was 24 at the time of his death. He was overseas 10 months with the 371st Fighter Group commanded by another St. Petersburg youth, Lt. Col. John Wallis Leonard who lost his life when his plane crashed in Germany in January, 1945. Lt. Bunting won the Air Medal with oak leaf clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross. The latter medal came for flying with Col. Leonard to drop supplies to 270 American infantrymen trapped behind enemy lines in the Vosges foothills, Oct., 1944.

LT. JOSEPH BUNTING

The deceased was graduated from SPHS in 1941 after winning the state championship in the 440-yard dash. He enlisted in the Air Force after Pearl Harbor and won his pilot's wings at Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz., Feb., 1944.

He is survived by his wife, the former Catherine Farrington; his parents, two brothers, Moran and Archie of St. Petersburg, and a sister, Mrs. Winifred Heivilin of Three Rivers, Mich.

Marsh Purchases Lot at Auction; $16,000 Paid

Perry R. Marsh, local realty broker, put in a top bid of $16,000 and purchased a double corner lot on Central Avenue at Twentieth Street in an unconditional auction yesterday afternoon.

Acting for himself, Marsh competed with about four other buyers as Bud Scott, local realtor and auctioneer, coaxed the price up from the first bid of $10,000, to $13,000, $14,000, and $14,500.

Scott sweated through the next 30 minutes to get the final price of $16,000 in $100 jumps.

The site — which is Lots 1 and 2 of Block 5, Johns Pass Realty Co. subdivision — is 100 by 100 feet on the southwest corner of the intersection. The terms of the sale provided for assumption of a mortgage of $9,000 payable in 1949, 1950, and 1951, and the balance in cash within 30 days. The seller was L. C. Thompson of St. Petersburg.

Two hundred stood in the sun to watch the sale.

“You can check off a 15-day furlough for Sgt. Robert Moran Bunting, 20, who’s in town visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bunting, 4390 Fifty-ninth avenue north. An automotive mechanic, he’s stationed at Camp Carson, Colo., and “works on anything from a motorcycle to a tank.”

Since the sergeant went on active duty in the Army with the 292nd Ordnance company Nov. 11, 1942, he’s seen a bit of the country. He was “processed” at Camp Blanding, trained at Camp Perry, O., and then attended a course at the Chrysler Tank arsenal in Detroit, Mich., where he learned “about tanks from one end to the other.” While in Detroit he also took a course in hydraulic transmission, before reporting for duty to Camp Carson.

A graduate of Senior high school with the class of ‘41, he was employed at the Universal Brake Service company before going on duty with the Army. An older brother, Joseph A. Bunting, 22, is taking advanced flight training at Phoenix, Ariz., and expects to graduate as a pilot and second lieutenant next month.”
