The page has a photo of Perez later in life. It then provides a brief summary of his life which reads:

“Michael was born in San Antonio, Texas on December 15, 1926. There he met his life long love, Anna, his wife of 64 years. Michael was a highly decorated war veteran. He joined the Navy as a Corpsman (field medic), serving a Marine Corp unit during the Pacific Campaign in WWII. Later he became an officer in the Air Force and flew hundreds of bomber (SAC) missions during the Cold War, cargo airlift (MAC) missions during the Vietnam War, and Air Rescue missions from the Azores off the coast of Portugal. In 1970 he retired and moved his family to Cocoa Beach. A friend to all, during his life he was also a fireman, commercial sign painter, correctional officer, college instructor (BCC), classic car restorer, marine salesman, and home restorer. His desire for knowledge and general curiosity was relentless throughout his life. However, Michael put family first and focused much time, energy, and love on his sons and grandsons...”
