MINNEAPOLIS CHILD WINS AS AN ACTRESS

Little Nellie Collins, Daughter of Vaudeville People Whose Home Is Here, Earns Applause.

NELLIE COLLINS,
Child Actress, Whose Home Is in Minneapolis.

Nellie Collins, the little girl who did such creditable work as Cissie Denver in the presentation of "The Silver King" by the Ralph Stuart company at the Lyceum last week, is an actress with five years of stage experience, despite the fact that she is but 8 years old.

Her first appearance was made with her father, Eddie Collins, a comedian well known and liked in Minneapolis, when she was but three years old. Since then she has appeared at intervals in child parts and today carries herself with ease and assurance while before the footlights. With all her stage experience Miss Nellie has lost none of the charm of childhood and her stage work is pleasing.

Nellie is a Minneapolis girl. Her mother is known to the vaudeville stage as Mattie Mart. Her daughter has appeared in child parts on several occasions, but her greatest success was scored last week when she played the difficult role of Sissie Denver in a way which won the approbation of all who saw her.

“LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18—Local theatrical men are today in communication with Eastern relatives of Eddie Collins, regarding the burial of the aged comedian, who ended his life by jumping from a second-story window yesterday.

Collins, a generation ago, was one of the nation's brightest stars. He died in poverty, a tuberculosis sufferer.

His desire to play in drama, rather than to perform the slapstick comedy that made him famous, brought Collins here as a motion picture actor.”

Transcription:

“Mrs. A. C. Andreasen, Poppy Day chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary, urges all members of the auxiliary and their helpers to be present early as possible this morning at the Scout office in the San Carlos hotel, to receive their poppies and instructions.

Much publicity has been given Poppy Day through the newspapers, decorated windows and Poppy Posters made by school children. The poppies are made by World war veterans in Florida hospitals and the returns from the sale go to their relief.”

(The article then lists the members of the American Legion Auxiliary expected to be present for the event.)

“CELEBRATION—Shell Oil company executive Clifford Lucas and his wife, Pat, came half way around the world to have a party today.

The reason? The golden wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Chrisitan Andreasen. The Yates Avenue residents, married 50 years ago in Mobile, Ala., will greet 150 friends this afternoon at Holiday Inn, Gulf Breeze.

In addition to their party giving son-in-law and daughter who came from Tehran, their three grandsons will come from England for the anniversary. Holland-born Robin Lucas, who's 22, is taking leave from his Lloyds of London post to fly here and join his maternal grandparents in the celebration. Jonathan, who's 18, and 16-year-old Mark, born while their parents were based in South America, are also joining the family. Mark goes to boarding school in York.

Gold and white flowers and anniversary symbols will be the focal decorative points for the afternoon party where champagne and canapes will be served.

Andreasen is a native of Denmark and was a Naval Air Station civil service employee for many years. Nellie Andreasen has been active in Girl Scouts and many other community projects.

Pat met her husband during World War II when he was a Royal Navy officer taking flight training in Pensacola.

During his career as a petroleum engineer, they lived in Holland, South America, his native England and the Middle East. A house in Surrey is their official address and they've sent their sons to boarding schools in England.

Their current home is a villa, 'mainly glass,' Pat explains, 'because wood is so expensive.'

While in Iran, Pat began a class of English conversation and was a dean of women in the school.

The Andreasens' house reflects the worldwide travels of their children and in the last 28 years Clifford and Pat have collected accessories, art and furniture for their home.

Before going back to Tehran they'll spend 10 days in England.”

“Mrs. Aileen Patricia “Pat” Lucas, age 77, passed quietly in her sleep on June 8, 2002 at her home on Perdido Bay, after a courageous battle with cancer.

She was a cherished wife, mother and grandmother and her quiet strength, her bright personality and devotion to her family will be sorely missed.

Pat was a native of Pensacola who went to Pensacola High ('42) and Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee. She met her husband, Cliff, during WWII and was married in '45. They lived in England, Holland, Venezuela and Iran while working for Shell Oil and retired to the USA in '85. She took part in charity work and was active in the Garden Club.

Dearly beloved wife of Cliff, a devoted mother to Robin, Jonathan and Mark and adored by her grandchildren, Alex, Hannah, Rachael and Eric.”

“Jay Goslings famed insignia of Navy cadets, celebrated his 15th birthday Friday with the help of his creator, Eddie Collins, electronic engineer in the assembly and repair department at the Naval Air station.

Collins received the inspiration for originating the duckling with the serious, painful expression who has learned to fly the wrong way with every cadet since Oct. 4, 1941 from watching NY seaplanes land. He realized that ducklings land in much the same way as the old NY’s and an idea was born.

Commissioned into the Navy as a lieutenant junior grade at the beginning of hostilities, Collins had received the rank of lieutenant commander by the time he was separated from the service and had served in the Atlantic theater of war as well as in many shore installations in the States.”
